[NOTE: The United States Patent and Trademark Office may require additional information if there is a question as to whether either the abandonment or the delay in filing a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional (MPEP 711.03(c), subsections (III)(C) and (D)).]

WARNING:

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.

STATEMENT FOR PETITION TO REVIVE UNDER 37 C.R.F. 1.137(b)

Mail Stop Petition
Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir/Madam:

The above-identified application became abandoned on March 1, 2006 for failure to file a timely and proper national stage U.S. application from PCT/JP2003/011963. Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b), Applicant hereby respectfully submits the following statement.

The applicant filed a Japanese application for the above-entitled invention on August 29, 2003 and filed a PCT application PCT/JP/2003/011963 on September 18, 2003. The date for filing a national entry application in the U.S. was February 28, 2006. The Japanese company which is the assignee of the Japanese application was in the process of going through a change of ownership and there was a loss of continuity in the monitoring of the company's patent portfolio during the transition period. After the sale of the company was complete, the new owners assessed the company's patent portfolio and realized that the national stage entry date for this application was unintentionally missed. The owners immediately instructed its U.S. patent counsel to file a U.S. national stage application and this petition to revive.

Accordingly, the entire delay from the date of abandonment until the filing of this petition and national stage U.S. application was unintentional. Because the applicant has now submitted a complete national stage U.S. application along with this petition to revive and all of the necessary fees, the applicant respectfully requests that this petition be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
